

K-LOVE does a great service to the community. It is the only positive music radio station on the air. The songs most people hear today are filled with profanity and obscene references. Only K-LOVE plays music with a clean positive message. Without K-LOVE, we will have lost one of the only family-friendly radio stations on the air. Families need an alternative to the bombardment of 'shock' radio.